

DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

The U.S. Health and Human Services Administration on Developmental Disabilities (www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/add/Factsheet.html) defines developmental disabilities as: “severe, life-long disabilities attributable to mental and/or physical impairments, manifested before age 22. Developmental disabilities result in substantial limitations in three or more areas of major life activities:

- Capacity for independent living
- Economic self-sufficiency
- Learning
- Mobility
- Receptive and expressive language
- Self-care
- Self-direction
